How to Re-register for a FT account

➢ Go to https://www.ft.com/
➢ Select Sign In.
➢ Enter your City email address and select Next.

➢ You are now able to access FT.com using single sign-on. This means you can sign in to your FT account while logged in to your City, University of London user account and you do not have to use a FT password to sign in each time.

➢ Your City email address will already be in the Email address box.
➢ Select SSO Sign in.
➢ Enter your City username and password e.g. abc123

➢ Once your FT account has been linked to Single Sign On, you will receive an email from the FT asking you to reset your FT password. The link is valid for 24 hours.
